In the U.S people have these traditions:

Christmas in the U.S.A

People exchange gifts on December 25th.

Christmas dinner includes turkey, potatoes, salad and raisin pudding or apple pie.

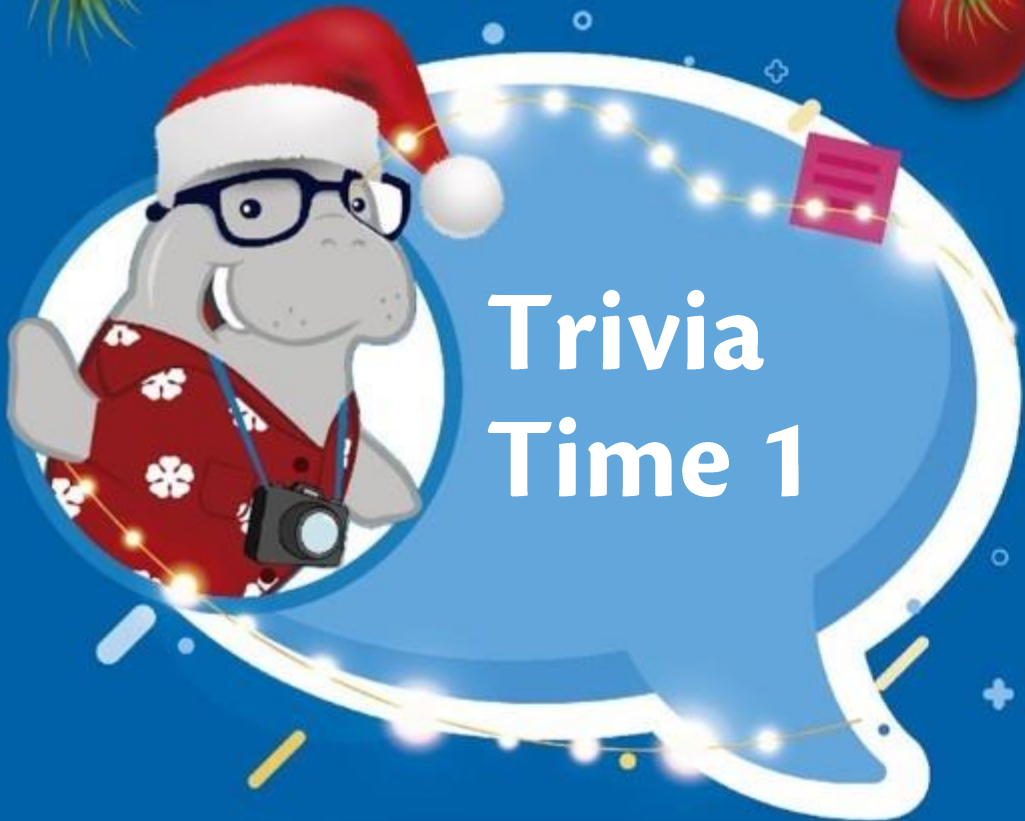

Family members gather together to decorate a natural tree.

Families hang their socks in the fireplace and Santa puts small gifts inside them.

Trivia Time 1

Now, that you know more about Christmas in the U.S.A choose the right option to the following question:

What do people eat in the U.S for Christmas dinner?

- a) Hot dog
- b) Fried fish
- c) Turkey

Christmas in Colombia

Here in Colombia people have these traditions:

People go to parks and squares to see the Christmas lighting displays.

On December 25th, kids wake up and find presents on their beds or under the christmas tree.

Christmas dinner is usually chicken, turkey or pork with potatoes or rice, christmas custard and cheese fritters.

Children usually attend Christmas Advent Prayer and at the end they receive a gift.

Now, that you know more about Christmas in Colombia choose the right option to the following question:

What do children receive at the end of Christmas Advent Prayer?

- a) christmas trees
- b) a gift
- c) christmas lighting display

More Participants of Tico's Challenge #2!

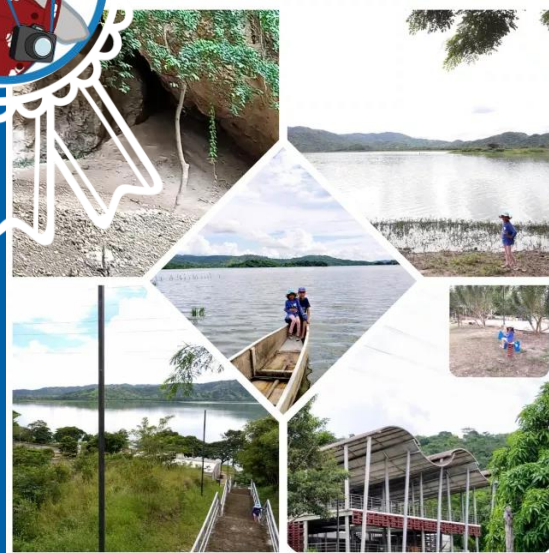

Baranoa has a beautiful church called Santa Ana. Santa Ana is our patron and the grandmother of Jesus. Herodes is an important character of the Loa. The Loa is a heritage of my town. Finally The pastel is the delicious food of Pital de Megua.

Here you can read some others! Excellent job, friends!

Congratulations!

Maryángel Castro Sierra. I.E Francisco José de Caldas. Sede Campesino 502 Baranoa

Alejandra Sofía Viloría Fontalvo IET Agropecuaria de Santa Cruz-Luruaco.

The Luruaco lagoon is very beautiful.

In the swamp of Tocagua we can go canocing.

The tourist hostel is fun.

The viewpoint is a good place to breathe fresh air.

The Mojana cave is creepy.

We will wait for you!!
